These certifications affirm the company's adherence to DIN and US MIL standards and IPC specifications, ensuring top-tier quality and reliability in all its products.

Market Presence

Since 1990, B C C Fuba India Limited has been listed on the Bombay Stock Exchange, marking its longstanding presence and credibility in the industry.

Financial Performance:

During the year under consideration, there have been significant improvements on both domestic and international fronts. Your Company's revenue from core printed circuit board manufacturing operations increased to Rs. 32,26,38,514/-, with Earnings before Interest and Depreciation amounting to Rs. 4,96,37,268/-. This represents a 12.61% growth in core revenue activities and a 70.63% increase in profits, with EBIT rising from Rs. 2,90,91,195/- to Rs. 4,06,15,067/-.

Additionally, the company achieved a Total Comprehensive Income of Rs. 3,79,30,180/-, compared to the previous year's Rs. 2,25,01,858/-, marking a 68.56% increase. Leveraging the strong reputation of the "FUBA" brand for high-quality professional-grade products, the company continues to attract new customers and increase business from existing ones.

Expansion Plan:

Our company is undertaking a significant expansion drive, with the introduction of new machinery and the enlargement of our working area. This initiative is expected to double our factory's operational space and, in the future, will allow us to double our production capacity as well. By investing in advanced technology and increasing our production capabilities, we aim to enhance our efficiency, meet growing customer demand, and solidify our position as a leader in the industry. This expansion not only reflects our commitment to growth and innovation but also positions us to better serve our clients with high-quality products and timely delivery.

Industrial Structure and Development:

The rise in digitization and the increasing use of electronics and machinery in daily life are driving up demand for electronic components. As PCBs are fundamental to any electronic device, this demand is expected to continue growing. Innovations in technology and the proliferation of smart devices further accelerate this trend, creating a robust market for PCB manufacturers. Consequently, companies in this sector are poised for significant growth, meeting the ever-expanding needs of various industries such as consumer electronics, automotive, healthcare, and industrial automation.

Opportunities, Threats, Risks, and Concerns:

The PCB industry is a very clinical industry and is the basic raw material for the whole electronic industry landscape. And since the electronic industry is increasing multifold every year, the PCB market is also increasing in the same proportion. Accordingly, there is no dearth of scope and opportunities. Under the "Make in India" campaign of the Government of India ('GOI'), many OEMs have started purchasing domestically rather than importing their PCBs from other nations. This trend is expected to increase further in the coming few years. However, the volatility of the raw material prices is something that is to be looked at more keenly industry-wide. The Industry Association is also in constant touch with the GOI to take steps to promote the domestic PCB industry along with the other industries that provide them the raw materials. There are many new PCB manufacturers who are entering the market and bringing in new investments and innovations, however there are very few, including us, who manufacture professional grade PCBs as per the industry requirements and standards.

Outlook:

The government is enhancing the domestic manufacturing landscape to boost export revenue and reduce imports. India's circuit board production base is currently small but is projected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 16.5% through 2032.. The "Make in India" campaign has positively impacted the company, which is now focusing on the e-mobility sector in line with the government's goal of electrifying all vehicles by 2030.

There is a significant surge in demand for e-mobility devices, equipment, services, and infrastructure. The company is actively engaged with many of India's major electric vehicle manufacturers, aiming to become a market leader in this sector soon. To support this vision, the management has undertaken a massive expansion drive, introduced new machinery and infused more working capital to elevate the company's performance and capabilities. The management is committed to making the company a leader in all its product categories.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2024 and its Profit (including other comprehensive loss), changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those SAs are further described in Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters ('KAM') are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined that there are no key audit matters to communicate in our report.

Other Information

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's Annual Report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditors' report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management's and Board of Director's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs, profit / loss (including other comprehensive income), changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures in the financial statements made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all the relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulations precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communications.

31 Employee Benefits

The Company participates in defined contribution and benefit schemes and the amount charged to the statement of profit or loss is the total of contributions payable in the year.

a. Defined contribution plan

The Company makes contributions towards provident fund and employee state insurance scheme to a defined contribution retirement benefit plan for qualifying employees. The Company's contribution to the Employees Provident Fund and Employees State Insurance scheme is deposited with the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner. Under the scheme, the Company is required to contribute a specified percentage of payroll cost to the retirement benefit scheme to fund the benefits.

During the year, the Company has recognised INR 20.46 lacs (Previous year INR 20.82 lacs) for Employer's contributions to the Provident Fund and INR 4.84 lacs (Previous year INR 4.87 lacs) for Employee State Insurance Scheme contributions in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The contribution payable to the plan by the Company is at the rate specified in rules to the scheme.

b. Defined benefit plan – Gratuity plan

The Company's contribution towards its gratuity liability is a defined benefit retirement plan. The gratuity liability arises on retirement, withdrawal, resignation and death of an employee. The aforesaid liability is calculated on the basis of fifteen days salary (i.e. last drawn qualifying salary) for each completed year of service subject to completion of five years service.

i. Risks associated with Plan Provisions

Risks associated with the plan provisions are actuarial risks. These risks are:- (i) investment risk, (ii) interest risk (discount rate risk), (iii) mortality risk and (iv) salary risk.

Interest risk (discount rate risk)	A decrease in the bond interest rate (discount rate) will increase the plan liability
Mortality risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants. For this report we have used Indian Assured Lives Mortality (2012-14) ultimate table. A change in mortality rate will have a bearing on the plan's liability.
Salary risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

In respect of the plan in India, the most recent actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out as at March 31, 2024 by Ashok Kumar Garg. The present value of defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the projected unit credit method.

ii. Principal actuarial assumptions:

Principle actuarial assumption used to determine the present value of the benefit obligation are as follows:

S. No.	Particulars	Refer note below	Year Ended March 31, 2024	Year Ended March 31, 2023
i.	Discount rate (p.a.)	1	7.25%	7.25%
ii.	Salary escalation rate (p.a.)	2	5.00%	5.00%

Notes

- The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian Government securities as at the balance sheet date for the estimated term of obligations.
- The expected return is based on the expectation of the average long term rate of return expected on investments of the fund during the estimated term of the obligations.

- 3 The estimates of future salary increases considered takes into account the inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors.

iii. Demographic assumptions:		Year Ended March 31, 2024	Year Ended March 31, 2023
1	Retirement age	58 years	58 years

The current service cost and the net interest expense for the year are included in the 'Employee benefits expense' in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

The remeasurement of the net defined benefit liability is included in the other comprehensive income.

The Company expects to make a contribution of INR 6.90 lacs to the defined benefit plan during the next financial year.

e. Sensitivity Analysis

Significant actuarial assumptions for the determination of the defined benefit obligation are discount rate, expected salary increase and mortality. The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on reasonably possible changes of the assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period, while holding all other assumptions constant.

Particulars	As At March 31, 2024		As At March 31, 2023
	Decrease	Increase	Decrease	Increase
	Discount Rate (-/+0.5%) (% change compared to base due to sensitivity)	6.00	5.00	6.00
Salary Growth Rate (-/+0.5%) (% change compared to base due to sensitivity)	5.00	6.00	5.00	6.00

The sensitivity analysis presented above may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligation as it is unlikely that the change in assumptions would occur in isolation of one another as some of the assumptions may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit liability recognised in the Balance sheet.

There was no change in the methods and assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis from prior years.

f. The expected maturity analysis of defined benefit obligation is as follows:

	As At March 31, 2024	As At March 31, 2023
Expected cash flows over the next
0 to 1 Year	21,153.67	22,976.37
1 to 5 Year	14,542.42	11,580.22
More than 5 years	37,263.79	31,356.16

g. Actuarial assumptions for compensated absences

S. No.	Particulars	Refer note below	Year Ended March 31, 2024	Year Ended March 31, 2023
i	Discount rate (p.a.)	1	7.25%	7.25%
ii	Salary escalation rate (p.a.)	3	5.00%	5.00%

Notes

- The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian Government securities as at the balance sheet date for the estimated term of obligations.

- 2 The compensated absences plan is unfunded.
- 3 The estimates of future salary increases considered takes into account the inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors.

c. Defined benefit plan – Leave Encashment

i. Risks associated with Plan Provisions

Risks associated with the plan provisions are actuarial risks. These risks are:- (i) investment risk, (ii) interest risk (discount rate risk), (iii) mortality risk and (iv) salary risk.

Investment risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated using a discount rate determined by reference to Government Bonds Yield. If plan liability is funded and return on plan assets is below this rate, it will create a plan deficit.
Interest risk (discount rate risk)	A decrease in the bond interest rate (discount rate) will increase the plan liability
Mortality risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants. For this report we have used Indian Assured Lives Mortality (2012-14) ultimate table. A change in mortality rate will have a bearing on the plan's liability.
Salary risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

In respect of the plan in India, the most recent actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out as at March 31, 2024 by Ashok Kumar Garg. The present value of defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the projected unit credit method.

i.	Discount rate (p.a.)	1	7.25%	7.25%
ii.	Salary escalation rate (p.a.)	2	5.00%	5.00%

Notes

- 1 The discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian Government securities as at the balance sheet date for the estimated term of obligations.
- 2 The expected return is based on the expectation of the average long term rate of return expected on investments of the fund during the estimated term of the obligations.
